

Opportunity for Workshop on

“Concept Development for Impact” for User-Oriented Business Design

One seat is available for M.Sc. (Dairy Tech. /Meat Tech./Agri-Business Management) 4th Semester student to join a week long workshop on “Concept Development for Impact” for User-Oriented Business Design. The workshop is organized by BUCSBIN-project (Building University Capacity to Support Business Incubation in Nepal http://www.cimo.fi/ohjelmat/hei_ici-osio/hankkeet/bucsbin). The most competent student from among the batch is selected through objective tests followed by creative writing skills and advanced skills in English and CV.

The test will be held at HICAST Sanepa Campus on the following date. Those interested students to participate for the competition can get detail information from DoRT, HICAST.

The right to choose the best suitable candidate is reserved to DoRT, HICAST.

Date: 10-05-2018

Time: 11:00 AM

Venue: Classroom of Sanepa Campus

For further Information, contact:

Directorate of Research and Training (DoRT)

HICAST